John Zucker OWNER, CRU CATERING & OLD WIDE AWAKE

For more than two decades, Executive Chef and Owner John Zucker has been bringing his vision to life in the lowcountry of South Carolina. His award-winning catering company has been voted Best Caterer for over two decades in the Charleston City Paper. Zucker was also named Charleston's Best Chef by the Charleston City Paper in 2019.

Cru Café, opened in 2002, was a beloved fixture of Charleston's dining scene for nearly two decades. Purlieu, launched in 2018 to national acclaim, enjoyed a celebrated run of its own. Though both have since closed, select dishes and flavors from each live on at events today.

In addition to his culinary ventures, Zucker is now the owner of Old Wide Awake, a historic estate in Hollywood, South Carolina. While the property remains open to other caterers, it stands as one of the area's most cherished event venues and a place where Cru Catering proudly creates unforgettable celebrations.

As the number one graduate in his class from Le Cordon Bleu in Paris, Chef Zucker trained under and worked with celebrity chef Wolfgang Puck at Spago in Las Vegas. From there, he became sous chef for the opening of Canoe, which was a semi-finalist in the "Best New Restaurant of the Year" category by the James Beard Foundation. Additionally, Chef Zucker is a sought-after restaurant consultant in the Southeast.

Chef Zucker is active in the nonprofit community and served as Vice President of Charleston Chefs Feed the Need organization. Over nearly two decades he has contributed both time and donations to the March of Dimes, Lowcountry Food Bank, Ryan White Program, and Lowcountry Local First, among other organizations.
